① Historical Town Hall

The year of construction 1484 is inscribed in the wood in Arabic numerals, using a half-eight as a four. The Town Hall's open ground floor accommodated the local court. The upper story housed the Town Council. The Town Hall has been the venue of countless public ceremonies, receptions and weddings – and still is.

② Town Church

The Town Church, constructed predominantly from 1461 to 1537, is dedicated to the Archangel Michael and Saint Killian. It was built upon the grounds of an former wooden Iro-Scottish church, which was replaced by a Carolingian stone church consecrated in 821.

③ Löwenhof & Thurn- und Taxis Building

The baroque building was constructed in 1755 by Johann Nicolaus Friedrich to be used as a tavern named „Golden Lion“. His initials JNF and the construction date ornament the pediment. Later the building served as a mailcoach station of Thurn und Taxis. Today the Office for Cultural Activities and the Tourist Information Center are based here.

④ Market Fountain

It was built in 1575 by George II, Count of Erbach. Its pillar is topped by a sandstone statue of the Archangel Michael. The patron saint protects the town against evil with its flaming sword and scales. However, the name of Michelstadt is not derived from the patron but goes back to an Old High German word „michel“ which means „large“.

⑥ Old Pharmacy

⑦ Mothers-In-Law-Fountain

The Schwiegermütterbrunnen (Mothers-In-Law-Fountain) is one of the oldest fountains in Michelstadt. In 1541, it was given to the town by Count Georg I of Erbach. Its name is derived from the four coats of arms engraved in the center post, e. g. the one of Baden (Beatrix of Baden was his mother-in-law).

⑧ Lower Gate

⑨ Tavern „Zum Grünen Baum“

⑩ House of Soldiers

⑪ Synagogue

Built in 1791, it was made famous by Rabbi Seckel Löb Wormser, Baal Shem („faith thealer“) of Michelstadt. He, who was in charge of a world-renowned Talmud school, worked here from 1822 to 1847. In 1979 a museum of Jewish religious objects was established in the Synagogue (Landesrabbiner Dr. I. E. Lichtigfeldmuseum).

⑲ Kellerei

These premises are considered to be the cradle of Michelstadt. In 815 it was bestowed to Einhard, the biographer of Charlemagne. Einhard's inheritance fell to the abbey of Lorsch, which led to the conversion of the Frankish empire. After the complex has been destroyed in 1304, it was rebuilt subsequently.

⑳ Thieves' Tower

The Thieves' Tower, a former watchtower of the Kellerei, served as the district jail. Since the tower had no ground-level entrance, the prisoners entered the dungeon through a trapdoor in the upper story. A stone relief of the Roman god Mercury can be seen above a narrow window, its meaning is unknown.
